To Whom It May Concern,

It is my distinct pleasure and honor to write this letter in enthusiastic support of Ms. Huynh Thi Cam Huong (Harlie) as she seeks new career opportunities in the venture capital industry. As her professor in the courses of Entrepreneurship Management, Business Policy and Strategy, as well as her Master's thesis advisor at the Institute of International Management (IMBA), National Cheng Kung University (NCKU). From the outset, Harlie distinguished herself as one of the most outstanding students in her cohort. Her intellectual curiosity, active participation, and leadership skills have consistently set her apart. In every classroom setting, she not only mastered theoretical concepts but also excelled in applying them to real-world scenarios. Her practical insights and strategic thinking enriched class discussions and inspired her peers to raise their own standards of excellence.

As her thesis advisor, I witnessed Harlie's impressive independent thinking and research abilities – traits uncommon among Master's students. Her thesis on governance and innovation was marked by analytical rigor and clear, actionable insights. With a stellar GPA of over 90, she ranks among the top of her class. Beyond academics, Harlie has over a decade of experience in finance, auditing, and corporate banking, most recently serving as Deputy Head of the FDI Banking Department at VietinBank. Her leadership skills and proven success managing teams in demanding environments make her exceptionally well-suited for your organization. In addition to her technical and analytical abilities, Harlie excels in interpersonal communication and is fluent in Vietnamese, English, and Chinese. Her commitment to ongoing growth, positive outlook, and adaptability are well-matched to the demands of your organization. I recommend her without reservation as a strategic, driven, and visionary leader who will contribute meaningfully to your organization.

Please feel free to contact me if you require any further information. I am confident that Harlie will bring immense value to your organization and continue to excel in all her endeavors.

Sincerely,

Reference Letter for Huynh Thi Cam Huong

Ho Chi Minh City, 19th March 2023

To whom this may concern,

I am writing this reference letter at the request of Huynh Thi Cam Huong – my 7-year staff at VietinBank Danang Branch.

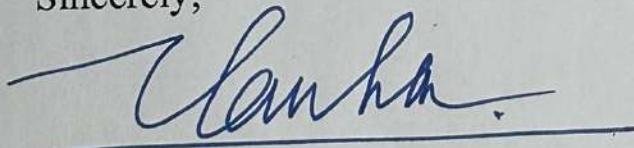

Witnessing Huynh Thi Cam Huong from her very first days as Credit Officer to the Deputy Head in charge of FDI Corporate Banking Department now at VietinBank Da Nang Branch, I really appreciate her journey of growth. With good academic basis in Finance and practical experiences in Audit after graduation, she quickly grasped job requirements and easily demonstrated competences in Banking. Although at the early stage she had some points which were not really suitable in Banking business, but one of her outstanding strengths was that she dared to admit mistakes to correct them.

Getting promotion to the Deputy Head of Large Corporate Banking Department and then to the Deputy Head in charge of FDI Corporate Banking Department, Huong has persuasively proved her capacity in planning, organizing and operating. She is also a studious person and always pursues the goal of training for the next generations of staff.

As her Director, I have had years in working directly with Huong and training her to a dedicated and bravery person. Hence, I am confident that Huong now is a good experienced individual in Finance and Banking professional and a good leader as well. In other words, I truly believe Huong is ideally eligible for your requirements/your programs.

For further information, do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Le Van Hao

Current Director of VietinBank Branch 1

Former Director of VietinBank Danang Branch

Letter of Recommendation for Huynh Thi Cam Huong

Ho Chi minh City, 10th March 2023

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am Tran Manh Kien – Professor of Macro Economics at Banking University Ho Chi Minh City. It is my pleasure to write this Letter of Recommendation for Huynh Thi Cam Huong – my former students at the university.

I started to know Huong when she was a second-year student participating in my class of Macro Economics. My first impression about her was that she was a nimble student with many intelligent questions and a responsible monitor in class. I also highly appreciate her effort of discovering new things as after finishing Macro Economics with grade A, she had been reaching me for further academic references.

Although Huong is now living in Da Nang, she still keeps in touch with me and actively discuss about daily social and economic matters with critical thinking. I am happy to be one of some persons she shares about her plan of studying CFA. She has always been energetic and progressive although as the very first days I got to know her. I believe she will obtain great achievements with her endeavour.

In bottom, based on my understanding about Huong as mentioned above, I give her my high recommendation as a highly qualified candidate for your requirements/your programs.

If you have any question regarding Huong or this recommendation, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Taiwan, 4th August 2025

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my distinct pleasure to recommend Ms. Huynh Thi Cam Huong (Harlie) as an exceptionally qualified candidate for employment within your esteemed organization. As her peer and senior PhD student in the IMBA program at National Cheng Kung University (NCKU), I have had the privilege of observing Ms. Harlie's academic and personal growth firsthand.

Ms. Harlie demonstrated exemplary dedication to her studies, completing the rigorous IMBA coursework within two years, achieving commendable academic performance, and successfully defending her thesis. Her keen aptitude for numbers and financial analysis was particularly evident in the International Finance Management course, where she consistently delivered insightful, high-quality assignments and contributed meaningfully to class discussions.

In addition to her finance background, Ms. Harlie is an avid and quick learner of languages. Despite her demanding academic schedule, she diligently pursued Mandarin courses, enabling her to confidently converse with local Taiwanese students and further enrich her cross-cultural communication skills.

Ms. Harlie's academic accomplishments are paired with her outstanding personal qualities. She is a driven and disciplined individual who embraces challenges and upholds her commitments with integrity. These traits, combined with her analytical skills and global perspective, position her as a promising candidate for not only employment but also future management roles within your organization.

On a personal level, Ms. Harlie is a loyal and optimistic friend, respected for her ability to offer sound, objective advice. I am confident that she will be an asset and contribute positively to your company's continued success.

Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Christine Ting Chih Wu
